Transportation

Transportation costs will be the responsibility of the participants. (School systems are encouraged to reimburse the participants in accordance with State of Tennessee approved travel regulations.)

Housing

Participants may stay in the cottages at the Tennessee School for the Deaf. Persons will be assigned on a two-per-room basis (each room has 2 twin beds). Each bedroom has its own private bathroom. There will be no cost for this campus housing. Participants are free to make other arrangements for housing; any associated costs will be the responsibility of the participant.

Meals

Continental breakfasts and snacks will be provided each day at no cost to participants, as well as dinner on Tuesday evening. Lunches are the responsibility of the individual. An extended time period will be given each day to allow participants to go back to the cottage (participants may use the kitchens) or to go off-campus for lunch. There are numerous full-service and fast food restaurants within a few miles of TSD.

Linen

Each participant should bring his/her own linen (sheets, pillowcases, towels, blanket, etc.) Participants will have access to washers and dryers.

Dress

Casual dress is encouraged. Participants should bring a light jacket or sweater, since classes are held in air-conditioned rooms.
